

Scott DiBasio, Manager, State & Industry Affairs with the Appraisal Institute

For over 7 years, Mr. DiBasio managed state government relations program, and support more than 90 chapters and chapter sponsored coalitions in their government relations activities. He represents the Appraisal Institute before state legislative bodies and industry groups. Mr. DiBasio monitors, analyzes and assesses state regulatory and legislative developments. He also supports joint government relations activities with affiliated organizations, including consulting with coalition members on state regulatory and legislative developments.